

PGP® ROTOR

The World's Best Selling Rotor Since 1981.

The PGP is Hunter's original product—the item that put the company on the map. Its exceptional design and impressive performance consistently provide beautiful results in a variety of residential and light commercial settings. The PGP's engineered nozzles distribute water evenly, making this sprinkler unequalled in reliability, durability, versatility, and value. With its endless built-in features and Hunter's years of experience in gear-drive technology, it's no wonder the PGP remains the professional's choice year after year.
